DETAILED ACTION

Drawings

1. Figures 2-3 should be designated by a legend such as --Prior Art-- because only that which is old is illustrated. See MPEP § 608.02(g). Corrected drawings in compliance with 37 CFR 1.121(d) are required in reply to the Office action to avoid abandonment of the application. The replacement sheet(s) should be labeled "Replacement Sheet" in the page header (as per 37 CFR 1.84(c)) so as not to obstruct any portion of the drawing figures. If the changes are not accepted by the examiner, the applicant will be notified and informed of any required corrective action in the next Office action. The objection to the drawings will not be held in abeyance.

Specification

2. Applicant is reminded of the proper language and format for an abstract of the disclosure.

The abstract should be in narrative form and generally limited to a single paragraph on a separate sheet within the range of 50 to 150 words. It is important that the abstract not exceed 150 words in length since the space provided for the abstract on the computer tape used by the printer is limited. The form and legal phraseology often used in patent claims, such as "means", "said," and "comprising" should be avoided. The abstract should describe the disclosure sufficiently to assist readers in deciding whether there is a need for consulting the full patent text for details.

The language should be clear and concise and should not repeat information given in the title. It should avoid using phrases which can be implied, such as, "The disclosure concerns," "The disclosure defined by this invention," "The disclosure describes," etc.

3. The abstract of the disclosure is objected to because of the use of legal phraseology [note the word "comprising"]. Correction is required. See MPEP § 608.01(b).

Claim Objections

4. Claim 1 is objected to because of the following informalities: it appears that in line 4 'which' should be replaced with --each--. Appropriate correction is required.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

5. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

6. Claims 1-9 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

Several expressions recited in the claims lack sufficient antecedent bases. For example only, the phrase "the front wall" in line 9 of claim 1 lacks proper antecedent basis. In another example only, the phrase "the front edges of the wall" in line 2 of claims 5-6 also lacks proper antecedent basis. In yet another example only, the phrase "the connecting points of two ridge parts" in line 2 of claim 7 lacks proper antecedent basis. These expressions make it difficult to determine what is or not in the claims. Accordingly the applicant is requested to review all of the claims for the purpose of making corrections wherever appropriate but not specifically pointed to, in order to provide appropriate antecedents and to ensure consistency in the numbers of specific elements recited in the claims.

Claim 9 is indefinite since all that the applicant considers to be encompassed by the phrase "a dam-like structure" cannot be determined.

The noted examples of indefiniteness notwithstanding, the Prior Art of record does not appear to show a refining surface having all of the elements of the claim 1. Accordingly, a claim having the same scope as claim 1, if presented for examination in response to this Office Action, would be considered to avoid the prior art.
